

About

who we are

Meet the instigators of stand-out, short-form animation. At Food Fight Studios, we create kickass animations for anyone interested in breaking convention.

we're not an agency...

But we get \*it* done.

We're an eclectic team of creative do-ers and strategic alchemists – we thrive on rolling up our sleeves and doing the hard work.

Our award-winning team can bring your vision to life with concepts and storyboards, music and annotation, and final production.
